custom cornhole boards

Cornhole, just sounds wrong,

until you get hooked on this game that's history is mostly unknown.

One story claims that the game was played in Germany in the 14th century. Makes sense when you think of how popular the game is in Cincinnati Ohio and Northern Kentucky where a predominant German population settled in the early 1800s.

Good news for enthusiast because D2 has taken the typical Cornhole board and transformed it into a work of art. Made of material that will stand up to the harshest weather.

Cornhole, also known as bean bag toss is a lawn game in which players take turns throwing bags of corn at a raised platform with a hole in the far end. A bag in the hole scores 3 points, while one on the platform scores 1 point. Play continues until a team or player reaches the score of 21.

Happy
 Forth of July

remember to thank a vet

In AMERICA no day is more significant than the Fourth of July, in which we celebrate the signing of the Declaration of Independence in 1776. That Declaration proclaimed to the world our separation from Great Britain and our emergence as a new sovereign nation, as we state in the pledge to our flag, "under God, with liberty and justice for all."

Don the signman, jokingly that is what his friends call him. Because Don and Nicole have made so many signs over the years that they are amazed themselves. "Sometimes it is hard to describe our company to others, we do so many things. But signs are a core product, be it commercial residential or for the Masonic lodges nationwide." Said Nicole Drake.

Shocked by a customer who recently visited and ordered lazer graphics... as an afterthought she asked, "do you make signs?"

The answer...yes thousands of them.
